Mangalore.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Through
The Chairman,
Municipal Council,
Mangalore.
Fort St.George,Madras.

Sir,

Six of the Municipal Sanitary Inspectors have applied for motor cycle allowances for the maintenance of motor cycles for use in the discharge of their official duties. The town of Mangalore is full of ups and downs and these out-door subordinates find it difficult to execute their duties with push bykes for which they were paid an allowance of Rs.4/- from 1st May 1938

(P) May 1938 as per G. O. No. 78 Finance dated the 2nd March 1938. Motor cycles will doubtless enable them to do their work more efficiently and promptly. The Municipal Council has therefore sanctioned a motor cycle allowance of Rs. 10/- to each of the Sanitary Inspectors. In the circumstances, I request you to kindly accord the necessary sanction with effect from the date of Council sanction. --A copy of the Council resolution in the subject is enclosed.
